We have learned that our privilege log may have created some confusion, and we are writing to provide clarification. Out of an abundance of caution, the log includes an entry for the first time my team ever had any communication with BSF in this matter. That communication related to an issue that arose from our internal investigation of practices by Uber's Security group following Mr. Jacobs's 5/5/17 letter. As noted in the bracketed language on the privilege log, Wilmer did not discuss the Jacobs email, letters, or the content therein with anyone at BSF until Thanksgiving Day. We similarly did not ever send to BSF the 4/14/17 email, the 4/19/17 letter, or the 5/5/17 letter. We hope this clarifies any confusion our submission may have caused.
